W.I
A.C

September 18th 1908

Sir,

I beg to enclose the usual ~~quarterly~~ list of Untraced vessels and should be obliged if you would inform me whether you have any later information concerning them in your records.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

Secretary.

The Secretary,

Lloyd's Register of British & Foreign Shipping,

71, Cannon Street, E. C.

The following is a list of vessels of which no intelligence has been received since the dates set against them and permission is asked to strike their names out of "Lloyd's Weekly Shipping Index" and to post closing entries against them in the Daily Index.

Vessel's name.	Voyage.	Remarks.
MAI, Ship, of Christianssand 1727 tons gross, 1642 tons net. Olsen, master.	Sailed Ponembout (New Cal) December 26, 1912 for Hamburg.	In answer to enquiry Lloyd's Agents at Christianssand replied under date March 19, 1914:- "The Owner states that he has had no information whatever from the vessel since her leaving Ponembout, New Caledonia, on the 26th Dec. 1912. The Owner has settled everything as regards the vessel on the understanding that she is totally lost". (Letter No. 10489) Lloyd's Register states "Missing since Dec. 1912." Norske Veritas, Supplement No. 10, dated October, 1913 stated "Missing".
BELLISLE, barque, of Landscrona. 511 tons gross, 474 tons net. Bengtsson, master.	Sailed Liverpool June 12, 1913, for Fray Bentos.	In answer to enquiry the Owner states under date Mar. 14, 1914. "Has never heard from her any more. No doubt the ship must be lost with crew and all". (Post-card No. 1304.)

LLOYD'S

No intelligence has been received of the following vessel for a considerable time and it is no doubt either broken up, sold, laid up, or has gone into the coasting trade. Permission is asked to erase its name from "Lloyd's Weekly Shipping Index"; should anything be heard of it later it could be reinstated if necessary. (3)
